WHAT ARE WE SEEING

VERSION 1.005
16-11-2018

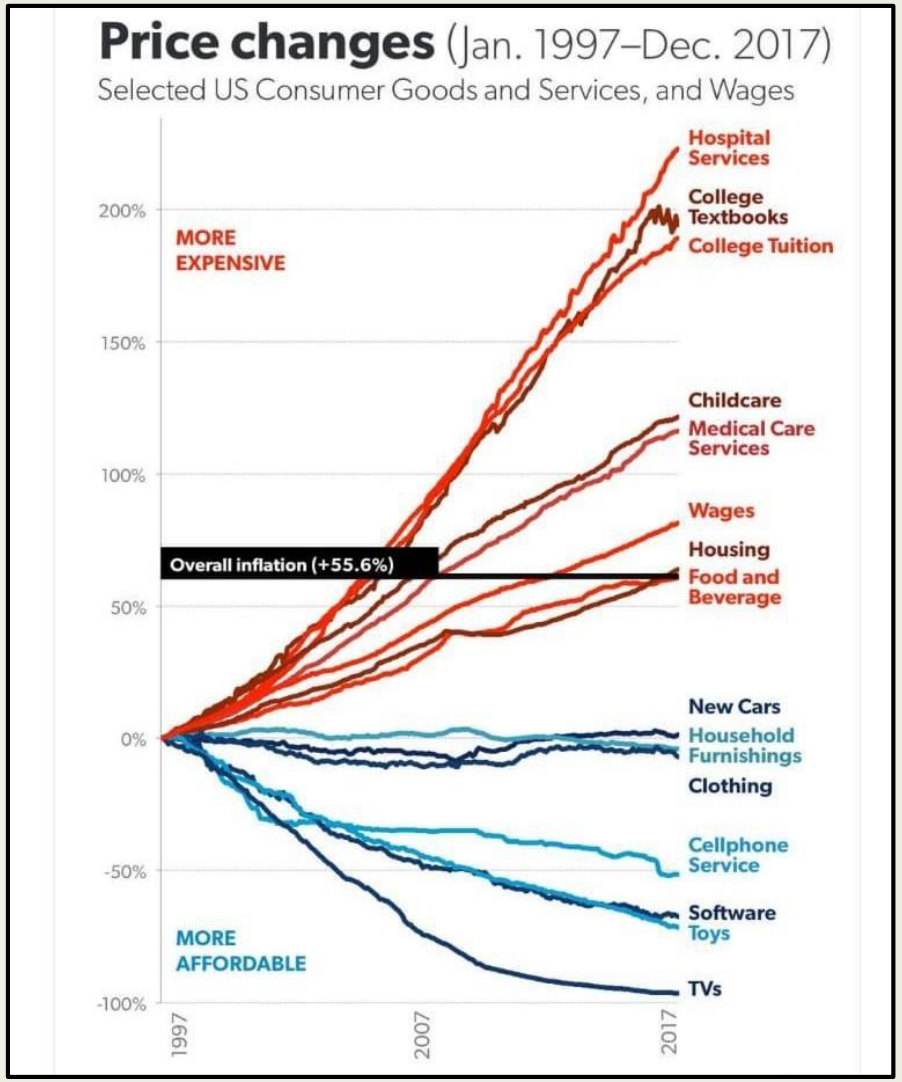
1. Crude prices decisively on a downtrend

Sharp fall in crude oil prices (21% from October peak) will provide a boost to Indian macros

Source: Bloomberg

2. Price changes for US goods/services

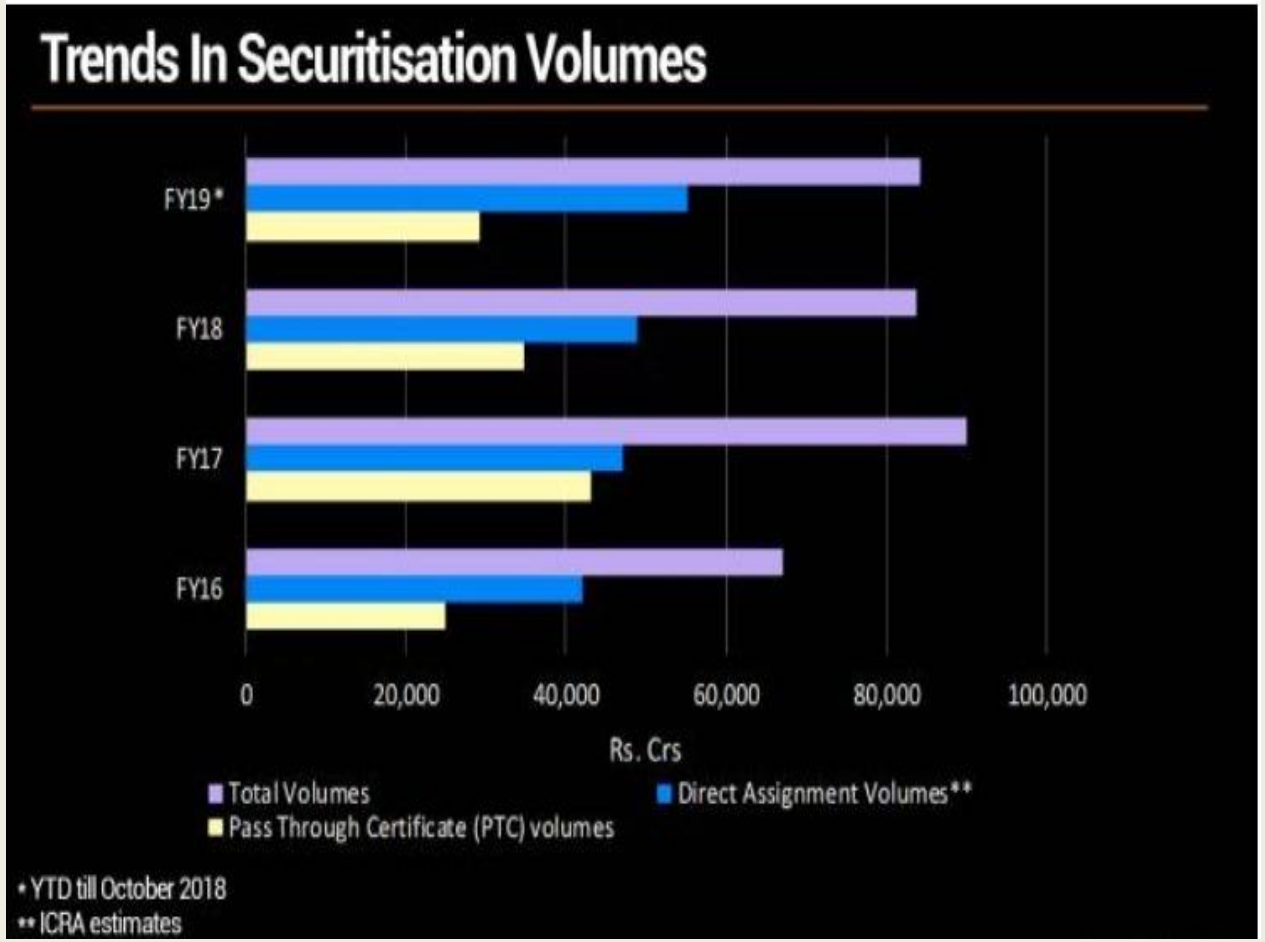
Services has seen the most inflation whereas Consumer goods has seen the most deflation



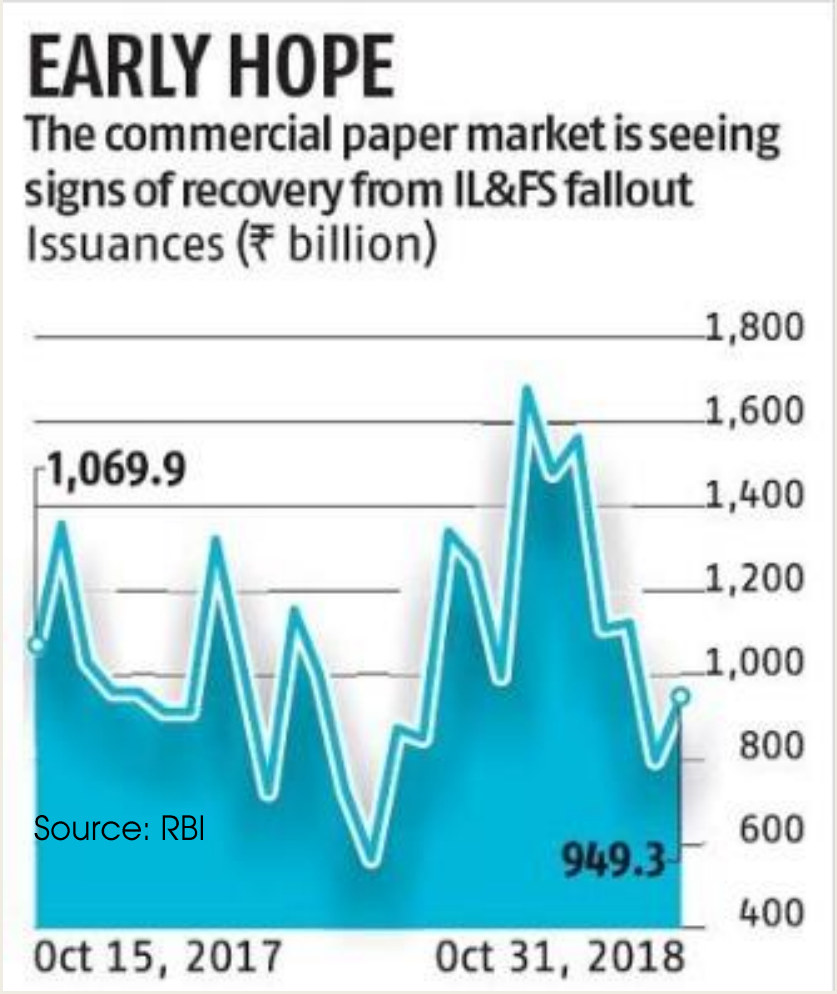
Source: BLS

3. Signs of recovery in NBFC funding

Post the CP liquidity crisis, there has been an increase in securitisation volumes and CP market is showing signs of recovery

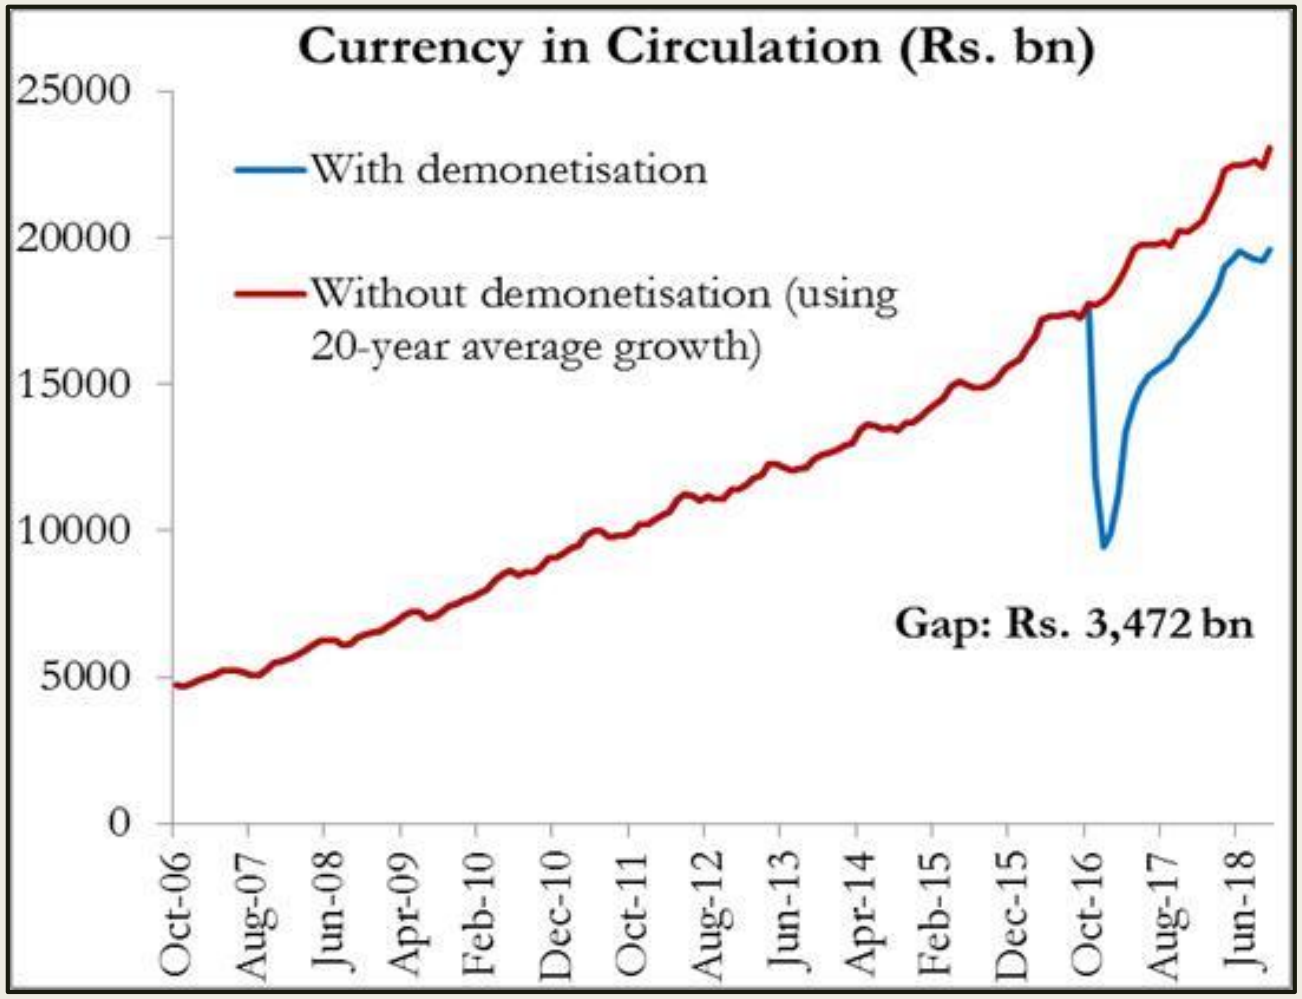


Source: Bloomberg, ICRA Research



4. Currency in circulation

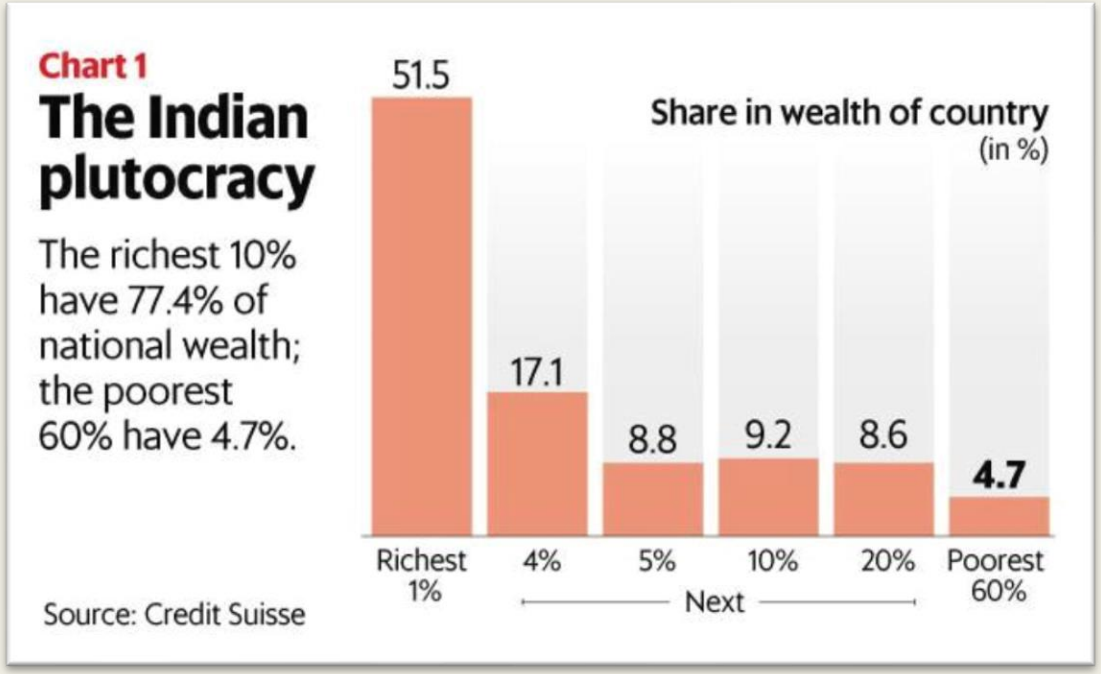
While currency at hand is at a high, it is lower than what it would have been sans demonetization

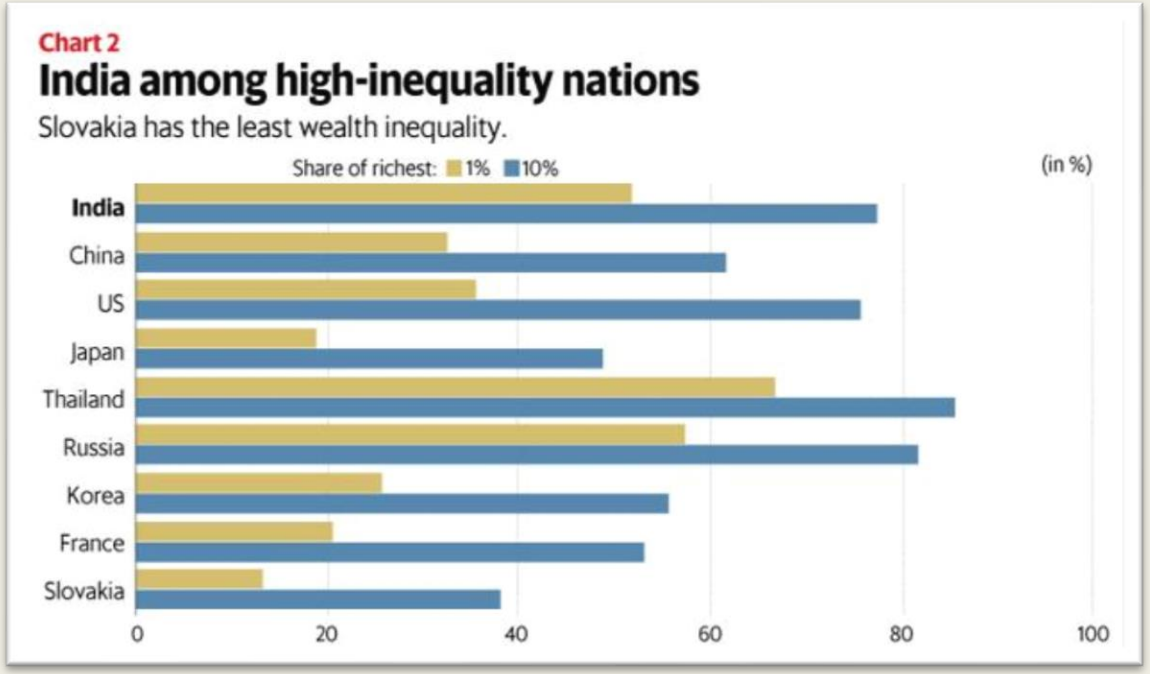


Source: asksandipsabharwal.com

5. India among high wealth inequality nations

The richest 10% have 77.4% of national wealth

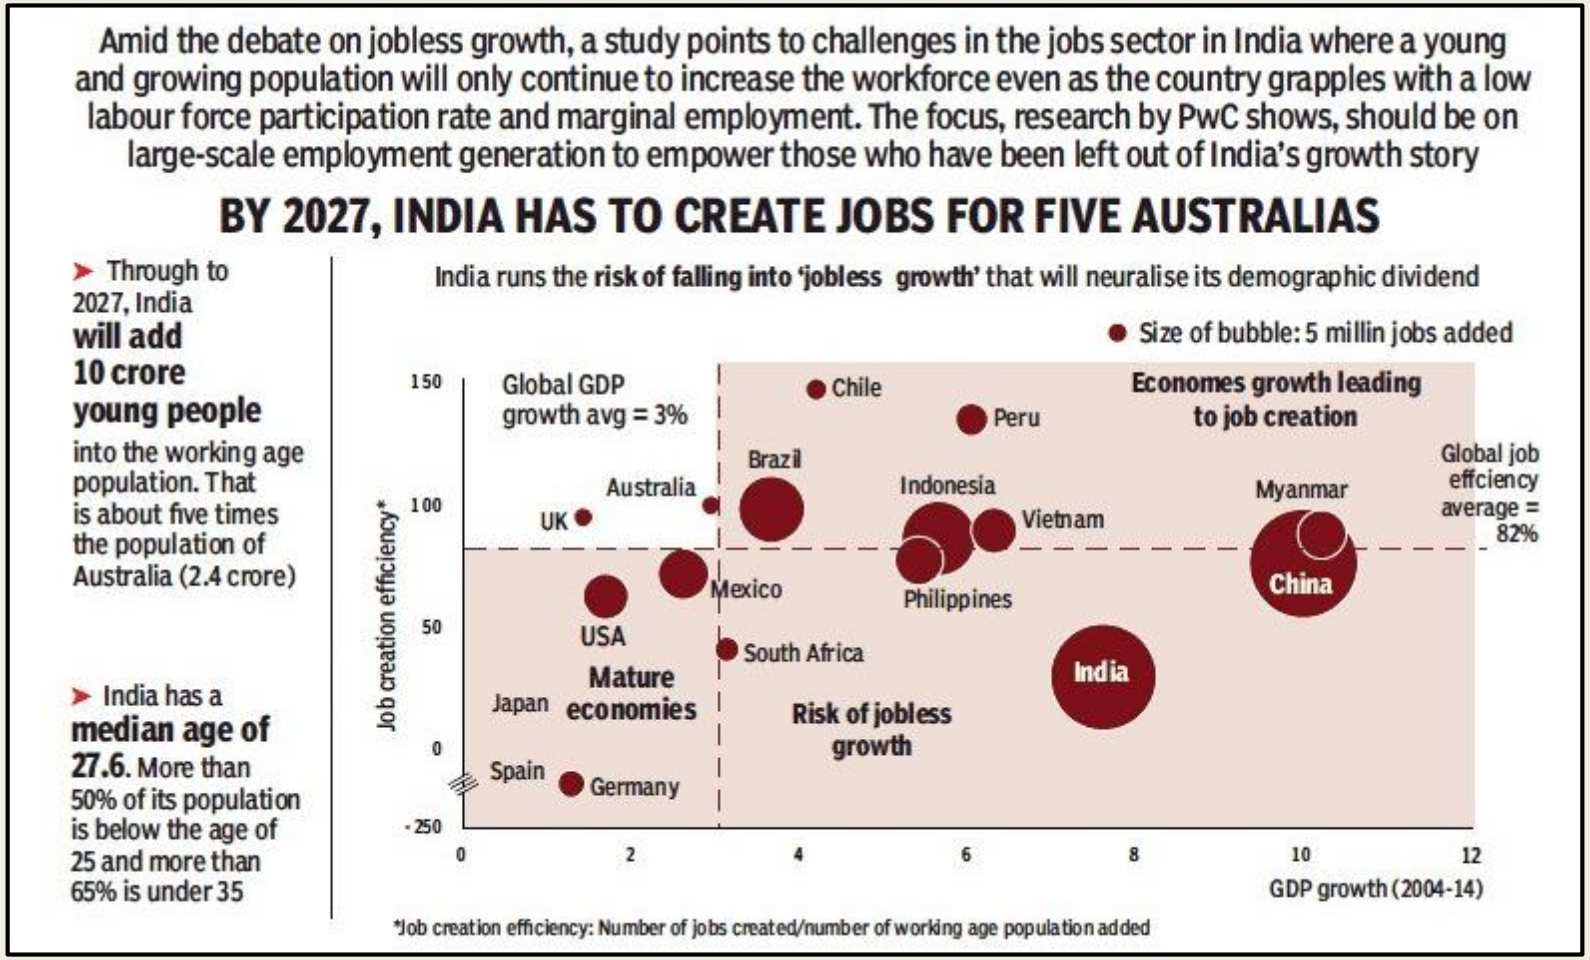




Source: Credit Suisse, TOI

6. India will add 10 crore young people into working age population by 2027

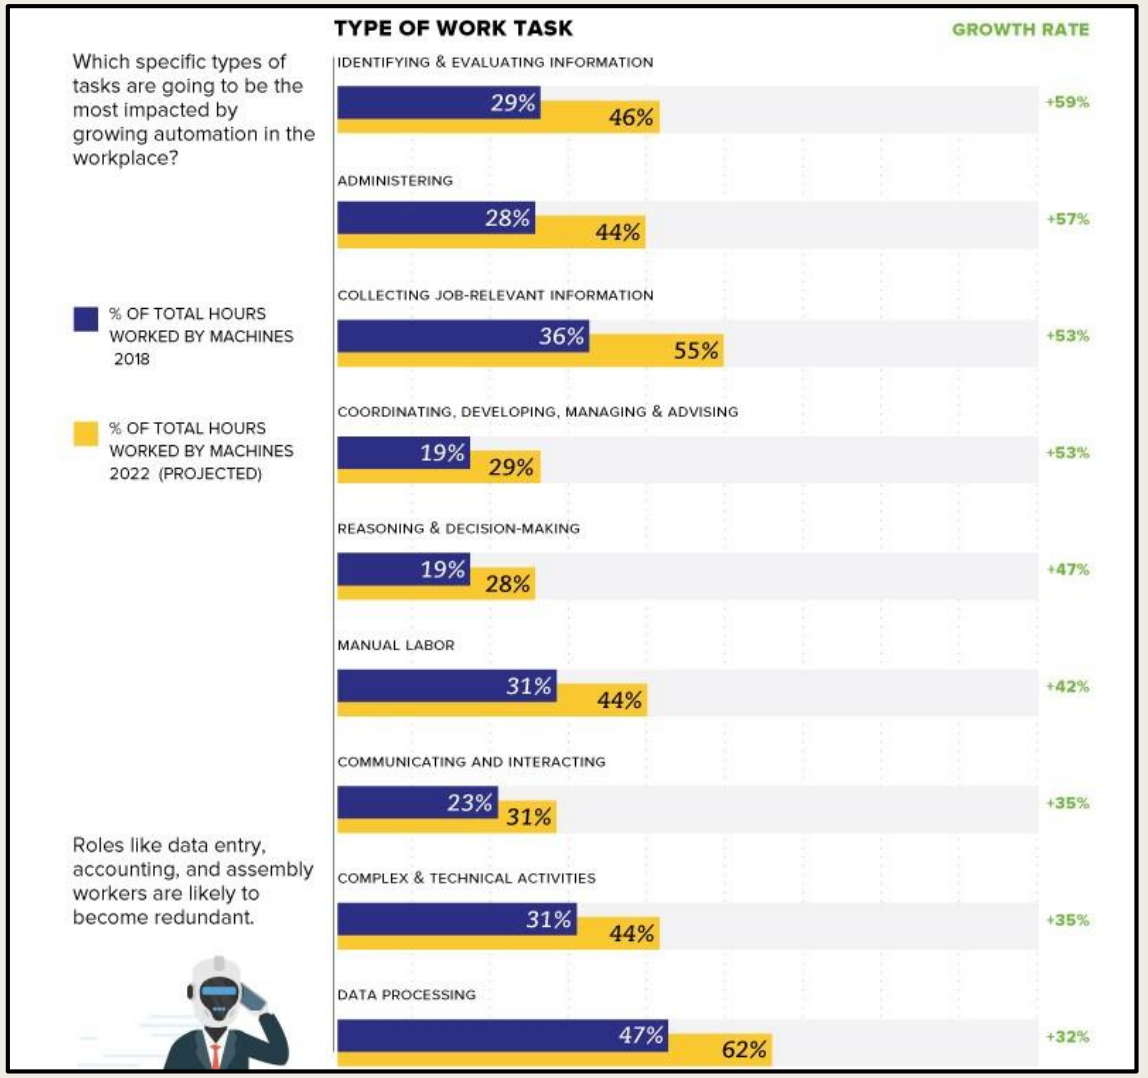
Challenges in the jobs sector continue; the focus should be on large-scale employment generation



Source: PWC, World Bank

7. Will robots take your jobs?

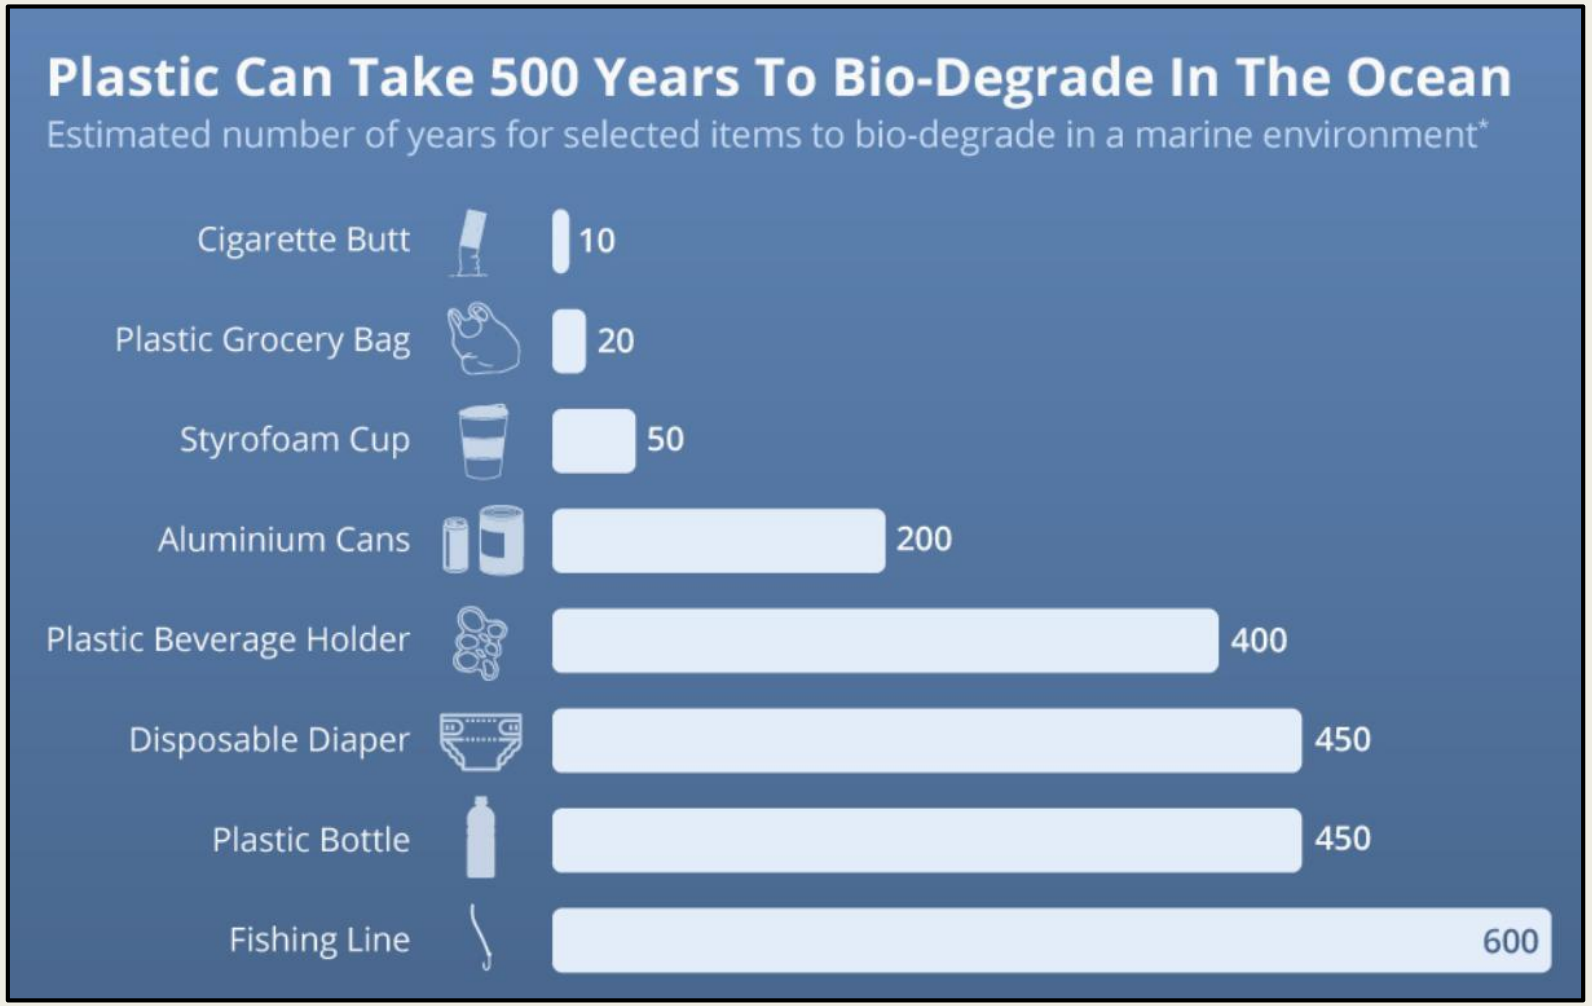
Robots are likely to replace jobs relating to data entry, accounting, assembly workers in the next few years



Source: Visualcapitalist.com

8. Plastic can take 500 years to bio-degrade in the ocean

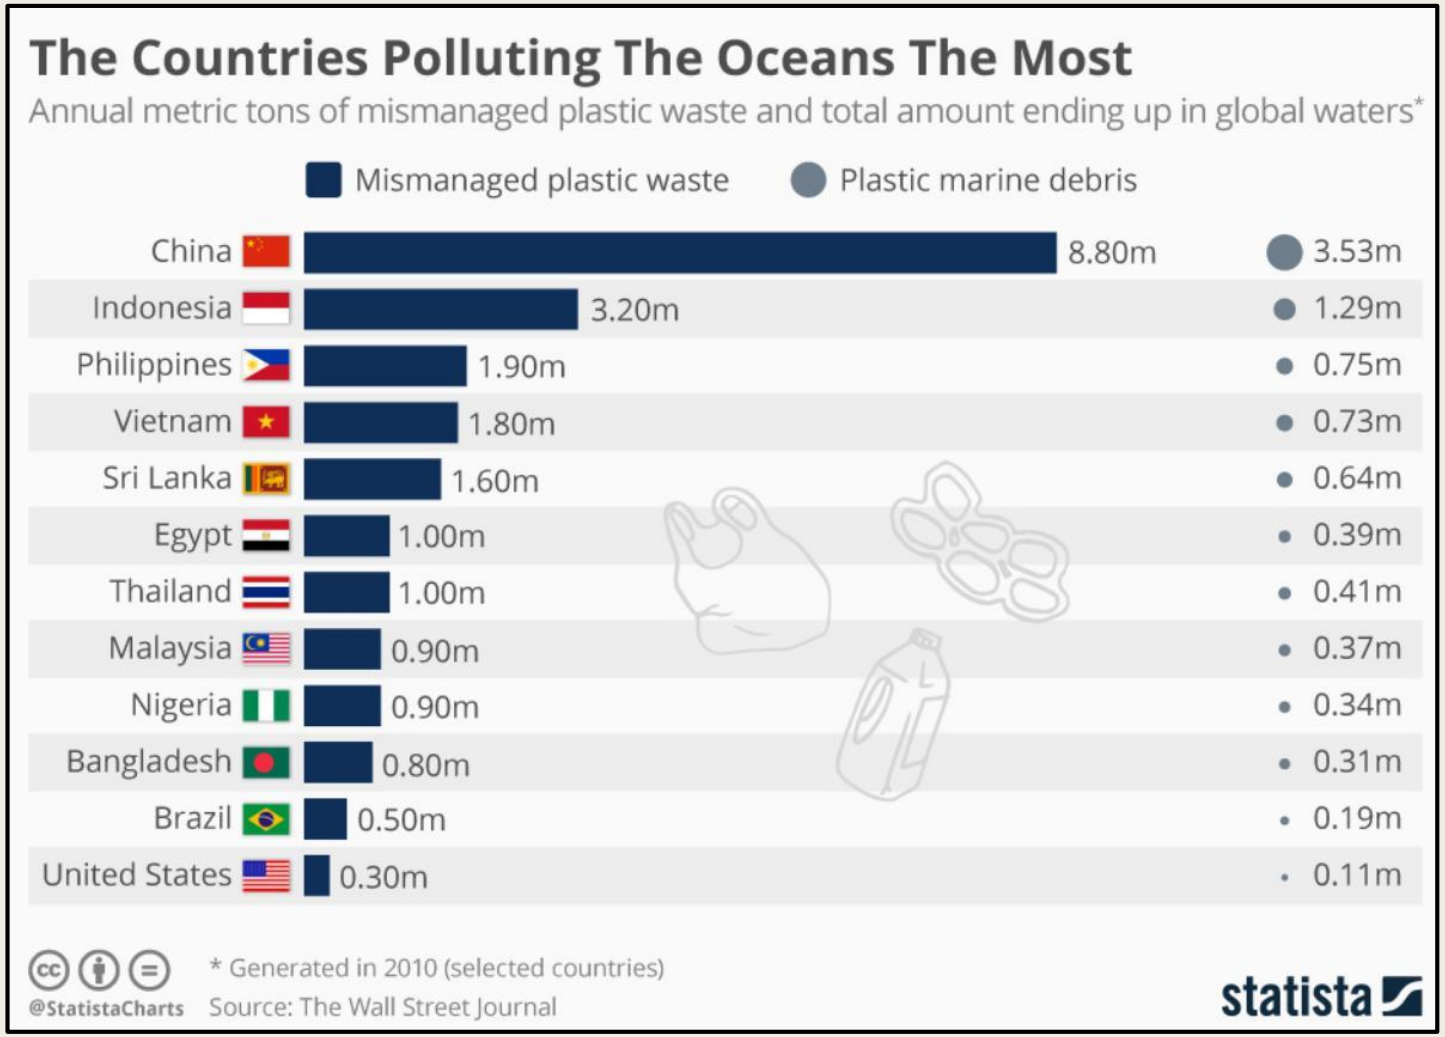
Statistics say that an aluminum can will degrade faster than plastic pottle



Source: Statista.com

9. Countries polluting the oceans the most

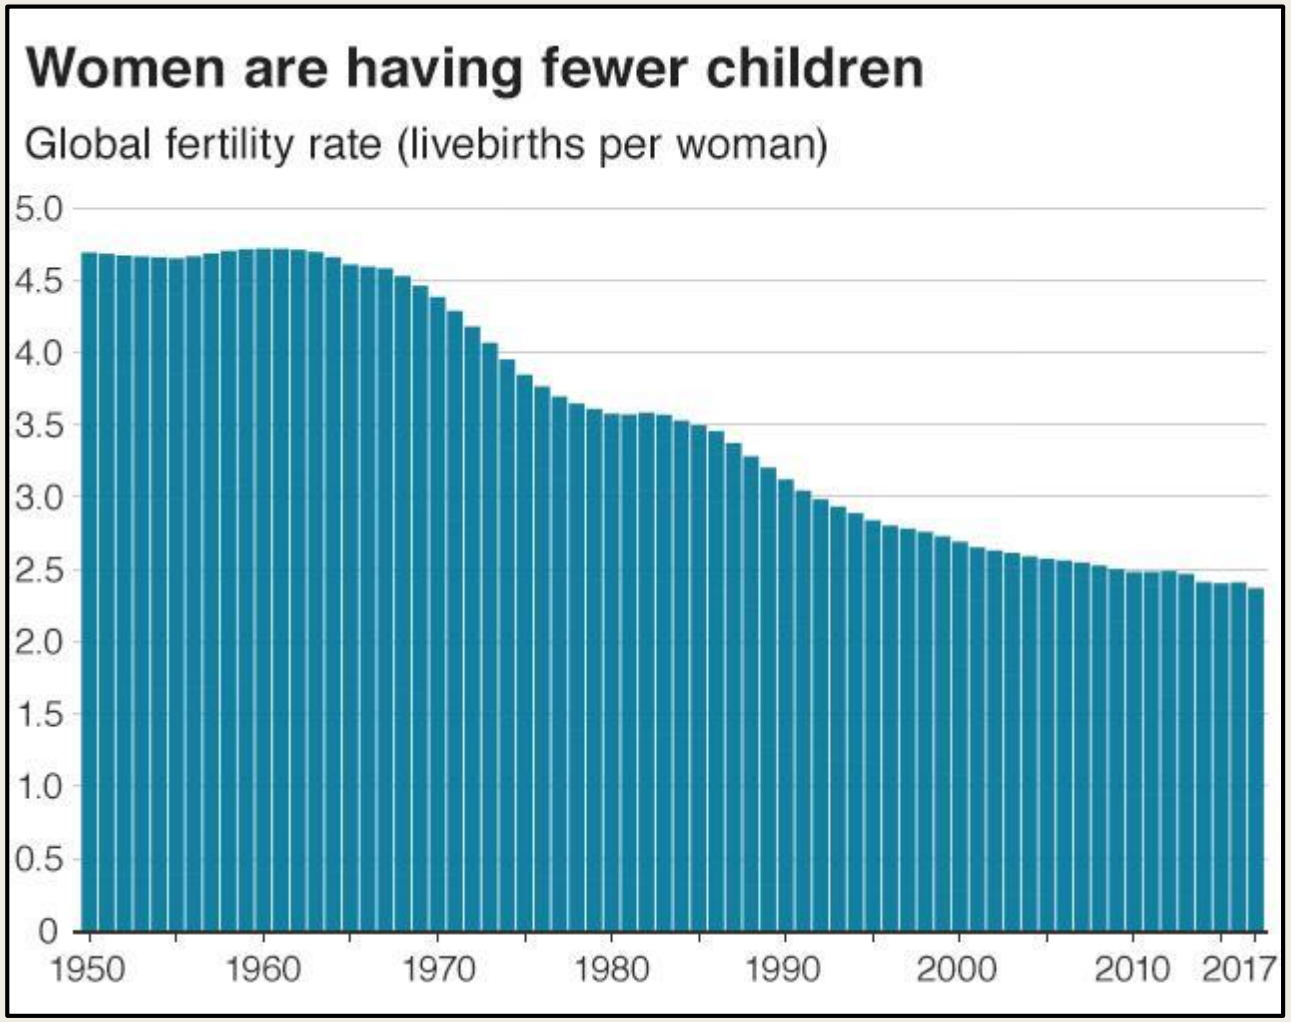
China is the biggest ocean polluter, no wonder environment is now a focus there



Source: Statista.com

10. Women are having fewer children

Education and Urbanization is creating awareness



Source: BBC

THANK YOU